ARE YOU GOING AWAY?

Better think now about the vacation you should have taken at the beginning of the season. It is too late to go to the coast, and more expense attached to a trip across the water than you care to assume. Better go to Haleiwa where the winds blow all of the time and the climate is as ideal as can be found anywhere. School teachers are given a special rate for the balance of the season. Go down in time to enjoy the full moon dance.
